William Wilberforce Year 5         Enquiry question- Should William Wilberforce be remembered in Hull?         Remember when         -Other significant people (Y1 – Samuel Pepys), (Y2 Guy Fawkes and Amy Johnson)         Slavery in Ancient Egypt, Romans, Greece.         Sticky knowledge         Slavery is keeping someone against their will and forcing them to work.         -Life for slaves was very hard. They were separated from their families and treated like animals       Slavery       decade         -William Wilberforce was born on 24 August 1759 at 25 High Street.       British Colonies       cause         -William Wilberforce is famous for abolishing slavery in England.       British Colonies       cause         -William Wilberforce has a statue dedicated to him and his house is now a museum       Thomas Clarkson       Thomas Clarkson         -Many people supported the abolition of slavery from politicians, quakers, former enslaved people and working-class people.       Slave triangle       Modern day         -Slack people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.       Slave triangle       Modern day         Black lives matter movement today.       Black lives matter Movement       Campaigin         National curriculum       Enquiry       Sources of information       Campaigin         National curriculum
Remember when         Other significant people (Y1 – Samuel Pepys), (Y2 Guy Fawkes and Amy Johnson)         Slavery in Ancient Egypt, Romans, Greece.         Sticky knowledge         Slavery is keeping someone against their will and forcing them to work.         -Life for slaves was very hard. They were separated from their families and treated like animals       Key vocabulary         -William Wilberforce was born on 24 August 1759 at 25 High Street.       Bill       evidence         He was a politician from Hull, who helped abolish the slave trade       Bill       evidence         -William Wilberforce has a statue dedicated to him and his house is now a museum       Bill       evidence         -Many people supported the abolition of slavery from politicians, quakers, former enslaved people and working-class people.       Granville Sharp       Quakers         -Slavery still happens today.       Black people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.       Villiam Wilberforce       John Hawkins         Slaver triangle       Modern day       Black lives matter       Movement         Campaign       National curriculum       a local history study       Sources of information
Other significant people (Y1 – Samuel Pepys), (Y2 Guy Fawkes and Amy Johnson)         Slavery in Ancient Egypt, Romans, Greece.         Sticky knowledge       Key vocabulary         -Slavery is keeping someone against their will and forcing them to work.       slavery       decade         -Life for slaves was very hard. They were separated from their families and treated like animals       slavery       Parliament       change         -William Wilberforce was born on 24 August 1759 at 25 High Street.       Bill       evidence         -William Wilberforce is famous for abolishing slavery in England.       Transatlantic       consequent         -William Wilberforce has a statue dedicated to him and his house is now a museum       Thomas Clarkson       Granville Sharp         -Many people supported the abolition of slavery from politicians, quakers, former enslaved people and working-class people.       Slave triangle       William Wilberforce         -Black people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.       Slave triangle       Modern day         Black lives matter movement today.       Black lives matter       Movement       Campaign         National curriculum a local history study       Enquiry       Sources of information
-Slavery is keeping someone against their will and forcing them to work.slaverydecade Abolishment-Life for slaves was very hard. They were separated from their families and treated like animalsAbolishmentcentury-William Wilberforce was born on 24 August 1759 at 25 High Street. He was a politician from Hull, who helped abolish the slave trade -William Wilberforce has a statue dedicated to him and his house is now a museumBillevidence British Colonies-William Wilberforce has a statue dedicated to him and his house is now a museumTransatlanticconsequence Legacy-Many people supported the abolition of slavery from politicians, quakers, former enslaved people and working-class people. -Slavery still happens today.Granville Sharp QuakersWilliam Wilberforce-Black people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.Slave triangle Modern day Black lives matter Movement CampaignModern day Black lives matter Movement CampaignNational curriculum a local history studyEnquirySources of information work. -Life for slaves was very hard. They were separated from their families and treated like animals -William Wilberforce was born on 24 August 1759 at 25 High Street. He was a politician from Hull, who helped abolish the slave trade -William Wilberforce is famous for abolishing slavery in England. -William Wilberforce has a statue dedicated to him and his house is now a museum -Many people supported the abolition of slavery from politicians, quakers, former enslaved people and working-class people. -Slavery still happens today. -Black people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.Abolishment Parliament historical Bill Bill British Colonies Transatlantic Consequence Legacy Thomas ClarksonConsequence cause cause Thomas Clarkson Granville Sharp Quakers William Wilberforce-Many people supported the abolition of slavery from politicians, quakers, former enslaved people and working-class people. -Slavery still happens today. -Black lives matter movement today.William Wilberforce John Hawkins Slave triangle Modern day Black lives matter Movement CampaignNational curriculum a local history studyEnquirySources of information
-Life for slaves was very hard. They were separated from their families and treated like animalsParliament historicalchange chronology-William Wilberforce was born on 24 August 1759 at 25 High Street. He was a politician from Hull, who helped abolish the slave trade -William Wilberforce is famous for abolishing slavery in England. -William Wilberforce has a statue dedicated to him and his house is now a museumBillevidence cause-William Wilberforce has a statue dedicated to him and his house is now a museumThomas Clarksonconsequent Legacy-Many people supported the abolition of slavery from politicians, quakers, former enslaved people and working-class people. -Slavery still happens today. -Black people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.Granville Sharp QuakersJohn HawkinsBlack lives matter movement today.Slave triangle Modern dayModern dayBlack lives matter movement today.Slave triangle Modern dayMotern dayBlack lives matter movement today.Slave triangle Motern daySlave triangle Motern dayMational curriculum a local history studyEnquirySources of information
-William Wilberforce was born on 24 August 1759 at 25 High Street. He was a politician from Hull, who helped abolish the slave trade -William Wilberforce is famous for abolishing slavery in England. -William Wilberforce has a statue dedicated to him and his house is now a museum -Many people supported the abolition of slavery from politicians, quakers, former enslaved people and working-class people. -Slavery still happens today. -Black people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.Billevidence cause Transatlantic Legacy Thomas Clarkson Granville Sharp Quakers William Wilberforce-Slavery still happens today. -Black people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.Granville Sharp Quakers William WilberforceJohn Hawkins Slave triangle Modern day Black lives matter Movement CampaignNational curriculum a local history studyEnquirySources of information
He was a politician from Hull, who helped abolish the slave trade -William Wilberforce is famous for abolishing slavery in England. -William Wilberforce has a statue dedicated to him and his house is now a museumBritish Colonies Transatlantic Legacy Thomas Clarksoncause consequent significance-Many people supported the abolition of slavery from politicians, quakers, former enslaved people and working-class people. -Slavery still happens today. -Black people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.British Colonies Transatlantic Legacy QuakersCause consequent Legacy William Wilberforce-Mational curriculum a local history studyEnquirySources of information
-William Wilberforce is famous for abolishing slavery in England.       Transatlantic       consequent         -William Wilberforce has a statue dedicated to him and his house is now a museum       Legacy       significance         -Many people supported the abolition of slavery from politicians, quakers, former enslaved people and working-class people.       Granville Sharp       Quakers         -Slavery still happens today.       -Slavery still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.       John Hawkins       John Hawkins         Black lives matter movement today.       Slave triangle       Modern day       Black lives matter         National curriculum a local history study       Enquiry       Sources of information now a museum       Thomas Clarkson         -Many people supported the abolition of slavery from politicians, quakers, former enslaved people and working-class people.       Granville Sharp         -Slavery still happens today.       Quakers         -Black people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.       John Hawkins         Slave triangle       Modern day         Black lives matter movement today.       Black lives matter         Modern day       Black lives matter         Movement       Campaign         National curriculum       Enquiry         Sources of information
-Many people supported the abolition of slavery from politicians, quakers, former enslaved people and working-class people.Granville Sharp-Slavery still happens today.Quakers-Black people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.John HawkinsBlack lives matter movement today.Slave triangleModern dayBlack lives matterBlack lives matter movement today.Black lives matterAutional curriculum a local history studyEnquiryTimeline specificationEnquirySources of information
-Slavery still happens today. -Black people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today. He black lives matter movement today. Black lives matter Modern day Black lives matter Movement Campaign National curriculum a local history study Timeline specification Enquiry Sources of information
-Black people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today. Slave triangle Modern day Black lives matter Movement Campaign National curriculum a local history study Timeline specification Enquiry Sources of information the black lives matter movement today. Slave triangle Modern day Black lives matter Movement Campaign National curriculum a local history study Timeline specification Enquiry Sources of information
National curriculum a local history study     Enquiry     Sources of information
National curriculum a local history study     Enquiry     Sources of information National curriculum         a local history study         Timeline specification       Enquiry       Sources of information a local history study Timeline specification Enquiry Sources of information understanding and for research purposes Who benefited visit maps
-Period of time from? visitors oral testimonies -Passing of time Explain how. artefacts diaries
-Retrieve information from timeline Does X deserve to museums photographs autobiographies
-Cause and effecthave the title ofdocumentationsongs-Factual conclusions to be made from['the Great' etc]?real life accountstools timelines to show in-depth understanding Explain why you newspapers speeches of the period of time think this. letters paintings clothing difficult/easy to find out about?       Title/ focus       Lesson outline
Lesson LO: To understand what slavery is and where it came from. Lo: To understand what slavery Enquiry question- How did John Hawkins benefit from the slave t	ade?
	Who is John Hawkins? What did he do and what dates are important to him? What is a slave?
keeping someone against their What is a slave?
Historical skills: Significance-	Slave triangle- where were they from, where/ who were they sold to?
identify historically significant people and events and situation Children to write about who John Hawkins is and what he did.
and explain their significance. Definition of what a slave is.
Lesson LO: To know what life was like Enguiry guestion- How does the life of a slave compare to yours?	Diagram of the slave triangle and what happened. Enquiry question- How does the life of a slave compare to yours?
2 for slaves. What was the life of a slave life?	What was the life of a slave life?
Sticky knowledge: Life for slaves was very hard. They were separated from their families and treated like animals.	Conditions for slaves, separation of families, no rights etc. Conditions on ships and when they got to the plantations
Historical skills: similar and difference- describe social/ Children to have the outline of a slave- what were their lives like. Insid diet, health etc and outside factors.	Children to have the outline of a slave- what were their lives like. Inside factors- diet, health etc and outside factors cultural/ religious and ethnic Points of view activity from different people's perspectives.	e tactors-diversity in Britain and make links to the wider world. Life of a slave from a slaves point of view Life of a slave from a tradesman's point of view.	e factors-

Lesson 3	SonLO: To know who William Wilberforce was.Sticky Knowledge: William Wilberforce was born on 24 August 1759 at 25 High Street. 		Enquiry question- What events in William's life the most significant? How do you think slavery was stopped? Who is William Wilberforce? Where and when was he born?
			Family and early life. Who inspired him? Create a glossary of key vocab. To create a timeline of William's life and achievements. Add on previous learning about John Hawkins to timeline.
			Steps to have a template. GD add greater detail working independently.
Lesson 4	LO : To know why William         Wilberforce is famous.         Sticky Knowledge:         William Wilberforce is famous for abolishing slavery in England.         Historical skill- Significance-identify historically significant people and events and situation and explain their significance.		Enquiry question- Abolishing slavery an	id his public speaking.
			Was it easy? How did he accomplish it? Who did he work with?
			Children to use their the did it. Who helped	reading skills to answer questions about what he did, how in. Who inspired him and encouraged him. ability pairs to answer the questions.
Lesson 5	LO: To understand why and how we remember William Wilberforce.			Does William Wilberforce deserve the remembrance
	Sticky Knowledge: William Wilberforce has a statue dedicated to him and his house is now a museum.		What happened when he died how is he remembered and celebrated today. Monument His sons wrote a book about him after he died
			House is now a museum- where is the house? What is in it? Public opinion Streets, pub, college named after him
			Trip to Wilberforce house for the children to visit the museum.
Lesson 6	meanle invelved in the linking the		Enquiry question- Explain why you think the abolition of the slave trade had many followers?
			Who would support the abolition of the slave trade?
			Children to independently research- Thomas Clarkson and Granville Sharp Quakers Working class people Olaudah Equiano The abolition of the slave trade in Britain - The transatlantic slave trade - KS3 History - homework help for year 7, 8 and 9 BBC Bitesize (teacher subject knowledge) Children are then to create a leaflet about these people and how they have supported William Wilberforce in his quest to abolish the slave trade.
Lesson 7	LO: To understand how William Wilberforce's actions have influenced life today.Enquir Has all ModernSticky Knowledge: Slavery still happens today.ModernBlack people are still fighting for equal rights and this is known as the black lives matter movement today.What is Why do		Enquiry question: Did William Wilberforce manage to abolish slavery? Has all slavery in the world been abolished?
			Modern day slavery and link to Black Lives Matter.
			What is Black Lives Matter campaign? Why do people support the Black Lives Matter campaign?
			Children to create a poster about the Black Lives Matter campaign, what it does. Home - Black Lives Matter
Working towards Working		nit assessment at Age related pectations	Working at a greater depth		