Grammar

When we say and write colours as adjectives after the noun in French, the spelling changes to match the noun whether it is singular or plural, masculine or feminine.

Grammar : Colours with masculine nouns

bleu - blue rouge - red blanc - white
vert - green
jaune - yellow

Add an 's' at the end of the colour if the noun is in the plural: "des tee-shirts bleus", "des shorts verts"

Grammar : Colours with feminine nouns

bleue - blue
rouge - red
blanche - white
verte - green
jaune - yellow

Add an 's' at the end of the colour if the noun is in the plural: "des robes bleues", "des jupes vertes"

Grammar

Some colours like orange and marron (brown) never change. They stay the same for both masculine and feminine, singular and plural.

Fact Bank

French fashion is famous! The city of Paris is often called the "fashion capital of the world" (la capitale de la mode).
